

Camren Cutuli

Graduate Consultant

Short Profile

Camren joined the Board Matters team in 2021 as a Graduate Consultant. He was instinctively drawn to the area of governance to further explore his interests behind the structures and powers of organisational bodies and their respective boards seen out in the world.

He is looking forward to developing his reputation within the governance sector as an expert consultant providing practical and strategic solutions to Board Matters' clients. With a diverse range of legal services and media marketing skills and experience, Camren is passionate in his pursuit of governance and strategy expertise and driven to ensure Board Matters' clients stay up to date with the latest in governance developments.

Camren holds a Bachelor of Laws (Honours) and a Bachelor of Media and Communications, and is admitted to the Supreme Court of Queensland.

From his studies and post admission roles, Camren is skilled in the implementation of critical and creative problem-solving techniques focused on meeting the needs of client briefs and resolving challenges effectively. Camren's legal background and professional communications skills ensure he is ready and able to deliver informed strategies in a tailored manner and capably support Board Matters' senior consultants in delivering excellent client experiences, no matter the issue at hand. He is confident, approachable and effective in communicating with a broad spectrum of clients and looks forward to bringing his truly client centric ethos to every aspect of his work at Board Matters.
